Experience Wright in Arizona

To escape the Wisconsin winters, Frank Lloyd Wright, and the apprentices and architects of Taliesin, would move his architectural school to Arizona during the colder months of the year. Now, you can enjoy the world they created, and more, with Wright Way Arizona: Innovations in Living.

Experience the architectural gems of Arizona with this five-day excursion, including a tour and dinner at Wright's Arizona Biltmore Hotel, an all-access tour of Wright's Taliesin West and the stunning Arcosanti community designed by former Frank Lloyd Wright Fellow, Paolo Soeri.

Join this winter sojourn in the Arizona sun from February 20 through February 24, 2009. Starting at $2,495, this excursion includes four nights' lodging, all guides, lectures and entrance fees, and transfers by luxury motor coach. For additional information visit GoWright.org and call 708.848.1976 for reservations.

Wright Way tours, presented by the Frank Lloyd Wright Preservation Trust, offer once-in-a-lifetime experiences in the U.S. and around the world. Travelers enjoy exclusive curator presentations, behind-the-scenes tours, special private showings and more. All Wright Way tours include first-rate accommodations, the best native cuisine and expert Frank Lloyd Wright Preservation Trust guides. Current itineraries and future Wright Way tour information is available at GoWright.org.
